THE

OF NEWPORT NEWS
2711 WASHINGTON AVENUE.JAPAN'S EASTER EGGS.
Telephone of Art Are These Symbols of Spring.

In Japan, where the coming of spring and the bursting into bloom of the cherry trees are made the occasion for an annual festival, the eggs of the Australian ostrich are greatly in demand as an important feature in the joyous festival. It is a far cry indeed from our travels of an Easter egg, whose pure, delicate surface is actually disfigured by cheap dyes and crude, raw designs, to the exquisite works of art that the Japanese artist puts upon the market to welcome the spring. The Japanese artist always works as if imbued with the thought that God is everywhere.

Nothing that the nimble brown fingers touch is ever slighted, and upon the oval surface of these large eggs the Japanese artists lavish a very wealth of artistic efforts. The natural tint of the egg, a grayish blue, is often retained, and fairy landscapes are traced upon this background, which blends exquisitely with the blue of the sky, distant mountains or tiny lakes and rivers.
Again, the egg will be tinted all over by the artist, and the designs are then chosen with great care relative to the ground color. Some of the most expensive eggs decorated in Japan are those which simulate specimens of cloisonne ware.

Such an egg, gorgeous in gold leaf and rare pigments and inclosed in a wonderfully carved ivory box, was once designed by an obscure artist and sent to the mikado, long years ago, just as the cherry trees were bursting into bloom. The royal recipient sent an immense sum of money to the artist as a mark of his appreciation and ordered him to leave the little country village where he had toiled unknown and come to the imperial city, and honor and great renown became his through long years.

Many and various are the designs on the Japanese eggs—dancing geishas and grinning devils, wistaria covered ten houses, with a geisha smiling coy welcome from the tiny porch, and stately temples presided over by solema, and eyed Buddhas, flowery landscapes smiling under sunny skies and lofty mountain peaks wrapped in lowering clouds. All the varieties of Japanese landscape and all the vicissitudes of Japanese life are portrayed on these eggs of the artist in Japan.—New York Tribune.

THE PASCHAL KISS.

Russia's Characteristic Salutation on Easter Morning.

Easter salutations among the Russians are characteristic. The "Easter kiss" is one of the chief observances.
On meeting friends, relatives or even mere acquaintances on Easter morning it is the custom to exchange the same greeting that passed between the priest and people on the "Great Sabbath" service. This is repeated three times in succession; the friends kiss each other and exchange red eggs, of which a pocketful are carried for this purpose.

Strictly religious people make it a rule to kiss the first person they meet on Easter morning outside their own doors, whether this be a stranger or a friend, of high rank or of low. The Emperor Nicholas I. observed this rule with such fidelity that he once so honored a common soldier, who, in addition to his humble station, had imbibed more vodka than was good for him.
At another time this high honor of the touch of the lips of the great czar fell to the lot of a poor beggar woman, who was as much terrified by her good fortune as though it had been a sentence of death.—Atlanta Constitution.

RESULTS AT BENNING

Southern Steeplechase the Event of the Day.

GAME COCK TAKES THE PURSE

Favorite Well Played Wing the Race in Fine Order and the Running Was All That Could Be Expected—Phoenix, 20 to 1 Wins.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 10.— A fair day, both as to weather and sport were the characteristics of today's racing at Benning.

The Southern steeplechase—a pink coat handicap for hunters qualified under the rules of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association was the notable attraction and proved to be the best running of the race ever witnessed. Game Cock, with Mr.
L. Evans up, was the favorite and Oleoso, with Mr. Smith in the saddle was a strong second choice. With a fine ride, Mr. Evans just managed to get the decision for the favorite by a nose.

Summaries:

First race, six and a half furlongs—
The Clown, 7 to 10, won; Waddell, 11, 100 to 1, second; Loricale, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:25.

Second race, half a mile—Woodline, 6 to 1, won; Windfall, 2 to 1, second; Wabash Queen, 20 to 1, third. Time 0:52.

Third race, four and a half furlons—The Wrestler, 9 to 5, won; Tieling, 8 to 5, second; Encore, 6 to 1, third. Time, 59.

Fourth race, fourth running of the Southern steeplechase, about two miles and a half—Game Cock, 7 to 10, won; Oleoso, 9 to 5, second; Iron Heart, 12 to 1, third. Time, 5:26.

Fifth race, fifth running of the Amateur cup, six furlongs—Paprika, 6 to 1, won; Pareon, 2 to 1, second; Caster, 9 to 5, third. Time, 1:21 2-5.

Sixth race, one mile and one hundred yards—Phoenix, 20 to 1, won; Grand Duchess, 2 to 1, second; Setauck, 11 to 5, third. Time, 1:54 3-5.

The Japanese Language.

The Japanese language has some features which puzzle beginners in its use.
In English when one has learned the name for rice that ends it. Not so in Japan. Begin with cooked rice, meshi.
When eaten by a child it is called mama. In speaking to another person of eating rice you call it gozen. As a merchant sells it, uncooked, it is kome and as it grows in the field it is ine. Se a carpenter's foot, or shaku, is about twelve inches, but a tailor's is fifteen.
A kin or pound of beef is fourteen ounces, of four twenty-one, of sugar over thirty. The ri, or mile, varies in different provinces, and on the Fusi-yama ascent half a ri is marked a ri because it's so much harder work going uphill.

The Jeweler's Carat.

The carat is a standard used by the jewelers to express both weight and fineness. When it is used as a weight it is equal to four grains, or the one hundred and twentieth part of an ounce troy. In determining the fineness of precious metals twenty-four carats is considered the highest standard of purity. According to this standard, an eighteen carat gold ring contains three parts of gold and one of some base metal.

ples, who today visited the people

Duchess an Angel of Mercy.

The Duchess of Aosta was a veritable angel of mercy to the sufferers by the market house disaster.
She spent the entire day at the hospital, comforting the bereaved and assisting the injured.
As the Duchess bent over a cot to give a cooling drink to a child who was bruised and battered from head to foot, she felt a kiss imprinted on her hand. Looking down, the Duchess met the eyes of a woman kneeling at her feet, who said:

"Your excellency, she," pointing to the suffering child, "is all I have.
I am a widow. May God reward you."

Red Cross at Work.

The troops on duty in the volcanic zone are utilizing the railway carriages at different localities as camp hospitals. The Red Cross Society has established hospitals in the vicinity of San Giuseppe.

The number of dead taken from the church at San Giuseppe, which collapsed yesterday while a congregation of about 200 persons were attending mass, is twenty-six. There were seventy-nine severely injured.
